

Agency Priority Goal Action Plan

U.S.- Mexico Strategic Dialogue on Illicit Finance

Goal Leader: Marshall Billingslea, Assistant Secretary, Office of Terrorism and Financial Intelligence (TFI)

Deputy Goal Leader: Daniel Moger, Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary, TFI – Office of Terrorist Financing and Financial Crimes (TFFC)

Overview

Goal Statement

- By September 2019, increase U.S. and Mexican effectiveness against transnational criminal organizations (TCOs), including drug trafficking organizations (DTOs), operating in the United States and Mexico through the Strategic Dialogue on Illicit Finance (SDIF) that focuses on taking enforcement actions, sharing key illicit finance information, safeguarding our financial systems against threats, and increasing the effectiveness and capacity of AML/CFT regimes.

Challenge

- Mexico's loss of key personnel and the December 1st, 2018 presidential transition
- Applying TFI's tools and authorities in the most strategic and effective way to identify, disrupt, and dismantle TCOs, including Mexican DTOs.
- Coordinating and collaborating with Mexican counterparts to track and disrupt criminal networks by addressing systemic AML/CFT issues. This effort requires Treasury to work with Mexican partners and the U.S. interagency to leverage diplomatic engagement, law enforcement, intelligence, and regulatory tools.
- Threats to the international financial system are constantly evolving, and it is imperative that the U.S. and Mexico address these increasing challenges to U.S. and Mexico national security.

Opportunity

- Treasury's Office of Terrorism and Financial Intelligence (TFI) has broad tools and authorities to address national security risks such as transnational criminal organizations and narcotics trafficking. We will focus our combined efforts on the disruption of illicit networks and protection of the international financial system through information sharing; targeted actions, including but not limited to sanctions; and other multilateral AML/CFT efforts.
- The Administration is leveraging the SDIF to address larger illicit finance concerns since it is an established mechanism agreed to by both the U.S. and Mexico, with leadership and working level partners in place to propose policies and best practices that reduce and prevent the flow of illicit proceeds
- This effort directly supports Treasury strategic objective 3.1: Strategic Threat Disruption - identify, disrupt, and dismantle priority threats to the U.S. and international financial system; and 3.2: Anti-Money Laundering/Countering the Financing of Terrorism Framework.

Goal Structure & Strategies

Strategies

- Strategy 1: Strengthen U.S./Mexican cooperation on improving AML/CFT capabilities to prevent, combat, and sanction illicit finance activities associated with Mexican DTOs, transnational criminal organizations, and other illicit actors
- Strategy 2: Identify and evaluate emerging illicit finance threats, vulnerabilities, and trends
- Strategy 3: Promote best practices for the use of existing civil authorities to more effectively target illicit finance actors
- Strategy 4: Share operational information on illicit finance activities in the U.S. and Mexico

Key External Factors

- Geopolitical factors
- Emerging/evolving national security priorities

History

- Established in 2014, the SDIF was created in an effort to deliver greater economic growth and opportunity for the citizens of Mexico and the United States by safeguarding our financial systems against the threats of illicit finance. The co-chairs are the U.S. Department of the Treasury and the Secretaría de Hacienda y Crédito Público. Together these two entities work together to propose policies and best practices that reduce and prevent the flow of illicit proceeds within and between the United States and Mexico, while continuing to facilitate the flow of licit funds.

Summary of Progress – FY 18

- Progress has slowed due to Mexico's loss of key personnel and the December 1, 2018 presidential transition.
- The TFI's Assistant Secretary's trip to Mexico was canceled in early October.
- TFI has been focusing on an NSC Mexico threat finance strategic framework, which includes the SDIF as a mechanism for illicit finance cooperation.
- TFI will monitor Mexico's progress in appointing new permanent or temporary team to evaluate next steps on pursuing the SDIF initiative.
- The new Treasury attaché to Mexico has been selected. Deployment is TBD.
